

SVI Residency Program

Program Overview:

- 3 full time radiologists and one part-time online radiologist residency director
- On-site 3T Philips Achieva MRI, 128-slice Philips Incisive CT, RS80 Samsung ultrasound machines with cardiology package.
- Nuclear medicine program (scintigraphy, I-131, and Synovetin OA)
- Close collaboration with other specialists, including internists, surgeons and pathologists
- Rounds, KCC, mock exams, and online radiology content program
- Academic affiliation for large animal training
- Currently a 3-yr program but possibility of 4-yr residency program
- High case-load provides a wide range of practical experience

Compensation and Benefits:

- $35-$45k/year salary
- Eligible for full medical benefits (health, vision, dental, etc.)
- 401(k) participation with company match when eligible
- PLIT Insurance, professional licensing and professional dues
- Two weeks of PTO
- Paid continuing education

Timeline:

Applications are due each year by January 23rd, and candidates will be notified of a decision by February 13th. For complete details, please review our residency program page on the ACVR website.

Application Instructions:

To apply, email your cover letter, CV and three letters of recommendation to Dr. Jaime Sage at jaime@sageveterinary.com. Please also CC jason.lane@sageveterinary.com.

*Diagnostic Imaging Internship positions are also offered through the VIRMP Match program.

1220 McNeil Road, Suite 200, Round Rock TX 78681

512-688-9404

www.sageveterinary.com

info@sageveterinary.com

